Festival of Tables

Saturday, August 14, 2010
11:00 a.m.

CWS Fantle Building
AUGUSTANA COLLEGE

Cost: $20

You are invited to experience a NEW event focused on feminine fun and fellowship!

Ladies, this one is for you! Please join us for a new event at the Center for Western Studies, the Festival of Tables. We'll meet at the Center for a salad luncheon, a short program, and a chance to win prizes. Of course, there will be time to chat with your friends and to meet new friends, as well.

We hope to see you there!

What's in Store?

Tania Hicks' presentation "From the UK to the US: An Immigrant's Tale" highlights her movement from European soil to the prairies of America. What does it mean to be an outsider who works her way in? How do accent and national history inform identity? How does one make a foreign land one's own? Hicks will touch on the immigration story of her son, recently adopted from South Korea, and also her connection with the 'Lost Boys' who relocated to the US from their own home in war-torn South Sudan.

Guests will be given the opportunity to vote on their favorite table, dressed by several of our guests, for the winner of the People's Choice Award. Each guest will also receive a complimentary raffle ticket for a chance to win great prizes! Additional tickets may be purchased at the event, three tickets for $5.00.

Hosting a Table

Feeling adventurous? We're looking for several gals willing to "host" a table. Table hostesses are asked to provide linens, dinnerware, glassware, silverware, and décor for their table. You may choose to use a set of dishes with sentimental value, a set with a story, or to decorate with a theme. Use your imagination! Celebrate a holiday or your birthday, have a picnic, honor your heritage...it's your choice. In return, table hostesses will receive a complimentary registration.

All proceeds benefit the Center for Western Studies.
