This is a picture from the Indigenous Conference at the United Nations. The conference ended with traditional dancing and merry-making on the green of the Palais.

This is a picture from my first trip to the Alps.

This picture is taken with some of my fellow housemates. The women in the picture lived in Home St.Pierre. Many of them were doing internships as well: WHO, UN, embassies, Red Cross. A couple of them were working on a Master's thesis, and yet another on a PHD.

The picture, taken on the roof of Home St. Pierre is the highest point of the city. As you can see from the roofs, the converted convent sits in the middle of the Old City. Off to the right of the picture is a beautiful view of the Lake and its surroundings.

This was a favorite place to sit and relax at the end of the day.
