

Chair of Moral Values – Community Discussion Series: “What is to be Done?”
Fall 2005

September 8 @ 10 AM      Three-in-one room

Panel-led discussion:

“Whatever you have done for the least of these:” Reflections on Matthew 25:31-46.

Panel members: Prof. Anna Madsen, Pr. Paul Rohde, Prof. Susan Schrader, Prof. Richard Swanson

Thursday, October 13 @ 10AM      Back Alley

"How Life Feels and Appears on the Pine Ridge to this White Person" A Conversation with Larry Peterson.

<http://www.augie.edu/sdsynod/larry.html>

Thursday, November 10 @ 10 AM      Back Alley

“An American in Geneva: Observing the Struggle for Women’s Rights in a Global Arena” Discussion with Andrea Halverson

Interim and Spring 2006

The community discussions fora will be held in the 3-in-1 room @ 10 AM on the following Thursdays

January 19,
March 9 and
April 27.

The first forum (Jan. 19) will be a discussion of how we respond to genocide, led by students from from GENL 492D The Citizen and the State in the Age of Genocide.

On January 18 Bob Flaten, former US ambassador to Rwanda will be on campus to speak to the students of GENL 492D. He has graciously agreed to speak to the campus community that evening.

Thursday, March 9 @ 10 AM in the 3-in-1 room.

The Chair of Moral Values and the Augustana Student Association (ASA) are co-sponsoring a round table discussion for students on what it means for Augustana to be a college of the church. Please note that this forum is intended specifically for students.

Thursday, April 27 @ 10 AM in the Back Alley.

Rob Oliver, President-Elect

Faculty and students from Augustana's Department of Business Administration will lead a community discussion forum on understanding Matthew 25:31-46 in the context of the modern world of business.