National French Honor Society

JOSEPH W. YEDLICKA AWARDS APPLICATION

In Recognition of Superior Achievement in the Study of the French Language and Literature

Joseph W. Yedlicka, Ph.D.

The scholarships are awarded in memory of Dr. Joseph W. Yedlicka, former President and Executive-Director of Pi Delta Phi, and enable full-time undergraduate regular members of an active chapter to continue their studies of French Language and Literature. The four awards are:

- Full tuition summer-session scholarship--seven weeks including housing, half-board and some additional living expenses--awarded by The American University of Paris and Pi Delta Phi
- Full tuition summer-session scholarship--five weeks including housing and board--to Aix-en-Provence awarded by The Institute of American Universities
- Full tuition summer-session scholarship--five weeks including housing and board--to Aix-en-Provence partially funded by the National Dean's List with Pi Delta Phi

The above awards are accompanied by A Pi Delta Phi Travel Grant of up to $1,500 to help cover transportation costs for one round-trip ticket from the U.S. to the host site only; the travel stipend does not cover additional or post summer-session travel.

- Full tuition summer-session scholarship--five weeks including housing and board--to the University of Quebec at Chicoutimi awarded by Pi Delta Phi.

ELIGIBILITY

- Current Regular member of an active chapter who has not previously received a Pi Delta Phi scholarship; students who have not been inducted into the Society prior to the application deadline are not eligible.
- Currently enrolled full-time in an undergraduate field of study.
- U.S. Citizen or permanent resident.
- Preference is given to applicants who have not previously studied in a Francophone country.
- Preference is also based on financial need and lack of opportunity.

DATES AND DEADLINES

- Nov. 15--application deadline including all of the above materials (postmarked no later than Nov. 15); FAXED applications not accepted.
- Feb. 16--scholarship winners will be informed.
- Sept. 1--scholarships winners are required to submit a report about their study abroad experience and thank you letter in writing to the Executive Director.

Applicant's Name (please print clearly)

PDP Chapter of which Applicant is Regular Member

APPLICATION MUST INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING

1. The Application Form (this document); signed by the Chapter Moderator.
2. Letter by the applicant, in English or French, stating clearly and briefly his or her qualifications. Applicants must address financial need and lack of opportunity, must address any previous study abroad, and must state that they are able to accept an award for summer study (five-to-seven weeks).
3. Three letters of nomination; the third or second recommendation (in the case where the Moderator is also recommending as a teacher) may be from a professor in another discipline. If the Moderator is also a professor of French recommending as a teacher, he/she should indicate that the letter serves both capacities. The Moderator must attest that the candidate is willing and able (physically and psychologically) to travel and to study abroad, and that the candidate meets all eligibility requirements.
4. Official transcript(s).

The Faculty Chapter Moderator certifies that the named Applicant meets all scholarship eligibility requirements:

Signature of Chap. Moderator
