Constitution

Better Together Augustana College (BTAC)

Article I: Name
The name of this club shall be Better Together Augustana College (BTAC).

Article II: Purpose
The purpose of Better Together Augustana College shall be to develop, foster, and promote interfaith dialogue on the campus of Augustana College. BTAC shall be a place for students from diverse faith traditions to gather and listen to stories, learn from each other, ask questions, discuss ideas, and form relationships with others that are respectful, empathetic, and informed.

Article III: Core Values
The core values of Better Together Augustana College shall be respect, dialogue, teamwork, service, justice, and compassion.

Article IV: Membership
The membership of BTAC shall include any student currently enrolled at Augustana who shows a shared interest in the purpose of the club and an ongoing commitment to BTAC events and meetings.

Article V: Offices and Election Procedure
Section I: The offices of BTAC shall be President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer.
Section II: The duties of the officers shall be as follows.
   1. President: The President provides an overall vision for BTAC and leads all club meetings. He or she acts as the representative for BTAC to the faculty, administration, and student body.
   2. Vice President: The Vice President serves in the place of the President when the President is absent.
   3. Secretary: The Secretary keeps detailed records of BTAC meetings and events. The Secretary is also responsible for recording BTAC membership, attendance at meetings, and notifying members of upcoming meetings and events.
   4. Treasurer: The Treasurer is responsible for all BTAC monetary transactions and communicating monetary policies to club members. The treasurer must apply for needed ASA funds throughout the year.
Section III: The election procedure shall evolve as the club expands and grows in the future. The current election procedure shall be that the Vice President assumes the role of President and all other officer positions are appointed as needed by the Advisor, President, or club members.

Article VI: Meetings
Club meetings shall be held once or twice a month. The time, place, and details of meetings shall be decided by the Officers at the beginning of the year or semester.

Article VII: Amendments
This constitution can be amended with a simple majority vote as long as two-thirds of the club’s members are present to vote.

Article VIII: Advisor
The advisors to BTAC shall be Rev. Ann Rosendale and Dr. Stephen Minister.

Article IX: Non-Discrimination Clause
BTAC will not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, gender, sex, sexual orientation, sexual identity, religious affiliation, political affiliation, age, nationality, origin, ethnic origin, or disabilities. This non-discrimination policy covers membership, access, and treatment in BTAC programs, activities, and elections. BTAC will make every reasonable effort to ensure all official activities are accessible to all.
