Financial Aid, Scholarships and Costs 2011-2012

Augustana is committed to providing students an exceptional college experience at a great value. Over 98 percent of Augustana's students receive merit and/or need-based financial assistance, with more than $33 million awarded last year in scholarships, grants, loans, and work study.

Comprehensive Costs

Tuition .....	$26,250
Includes January Interim
Student Activity Fee .....	$340
Supports campus events, concerts and student activities
Room and Board .....	$6,400
Does not include SD sales tax of $236
Total .....	$32,990

Indirect Expenses

Every student will have additional, indirect expenses which will vary depending upon personal circumstances. Transportation and personal expenses are also included as indirect expenses. Some estimated examples are:

Private music lessons	$340 per semester
Books	$500 per semester

The average financial aid award for the class of 2015 was $24,568. This includes scholarships, grants, loans and campus employment.

The average new freshman received approximately $17,000 in gift assistance.

We encourage all families to submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). At minimum, students may access $5500 in low interest Stafford Loans (Subsidized and/or Unsubsidized).

Complete your FAFSA at www.fafsa.gov.

Augustana's FAFSA code is 003458.

In addition to the programs listed in this brochure, Augustana provides numerous other academic and merit-based awards to qualified students. Students may receive more than one scholarship from the College. However, the College may limit the amount of multiple awards. Of course, any outside scholarships (such as community, school, or business-sponsored awards), will be in addition to any Augustana awards. Changes in current federal or state laws and regulations or in institutional policy may revise this information.
