LASIK is an acronym for "laser-assisted in situ keratomileusis" which includes all procedures that utilize the Excimer laser. LASIK corrects relatively pain-free and is completed within minutes. It corrects refractive error by changing the shape of the cornea. This procedure begins with you lying down in a relaxed position on the procedure bed. Most people can return to work within 24 hours.