

ROOTED & REACHING

500 YEARS OF LUTHERAN HIGHER EDUCATION

In observation of the 500th anniversary of the Lutheran reformation, AUGUSTANA UNIVERSITY invites friends and neighbors across the church to listen anew for the gracious call of God in Christ and reach for new discoveries of faith, learning and service of neighbor. All are welcome.

LUTHER TABLE TALK/ BEER AND HYMNS • 6 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 27

Fernson on 8th, 402 N. Main Ave., Sioux Falls

We begin with Beer and Hymns. Then the Rev. Dr. Samuel Torvend, chair of Lutheran Studies at Pacific Lutheran University, will guide stirring table discussions on “A Changing Church in a Changing World.”

HYMNFEST • 3 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 8

Chapel of Reconciliation, Augustana University

This festive service of song will feature Mark Sedio, cantor of Central Lutheran Church, Minneapolis, and The Augustana Choir under the direction of Dr. Paul Nesheim.

LECTURE AND PRAYER • 7 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 29

Chapel of Reconciliation, Augustana University

The Rev. Dr. Antje Jackelén, archbishop of Sweden, was instrumental in the 500th Reformation commemoration in Lund, Sweden, led by Pope Francis and the Lutheran World Federation. We invite our Roman Catholic neighbors for prayer together and to hear the archbishops’ insights about the Reformation today.
